

Between the Lines Radio Newsmagazine and Squeaky Wheel Productions present

Energy Wars:

Popular Movements At Home And Abroad

Why the Left is Winning in Latin America

with Benjamin Dangl, author of "The Price of Fire: Resource Wars and Social Movements in Bolivia" published by AK Press 2007

Benjamin Dangl has worked as an independent journalist throughout Latin America, writing for publications such as Z Magazine, The Nation, and The Progressive and is editor of TowardFreedom.com.

"With great empathy and lucid prose, Dangl captures the exemplary courage that has put Latin America in the vanguard of the new internationalism and has made it one of the few bright spots on an otherwise dismal global landscape."

— Greg Grandin, author of Empire's Workshop

Community activists will also give reports on energy movements locally and nationally:

Frank Panzarella, social justice activist, former director of the Connecticut Council for Occupational Safety and Health and organizer for "Fight the Hike" (UI/CL&P rate increases), will speak on "Local Resistance to Utility Price Hikes and Deregulation".

Bruce Crowder, mechanical engineer and clean energy advocate, will discuss energy regulation, public power and power generation technology in his talk: "Connecticut Power Trip: From Power Plant to Pool Pump and All the Tolls in Between."
